MEDICINAL.

The divorce evil seems to grow with every year. 7,500 divorces were granted in the State of Ohio last year. We agree that there are faults on both sides, but the great problem is: Are those faults remediable? To a great extent there is no doubt the conditions which result in divorce may be ramedied. Given a dyspeptic husband and a wife suffering from female trouble and we have the ready made elements of a divorce ease. In view of the facts there can be very little doubt that many women look forward to divorce only because they seek relief from obligations they do not fool fitted to fulfill. Women are not to blame. They have looked forward to their home life as a dream of paradise. Then disease comes like a serpent and destroys comes like a serpent and destroys

THE AUSTRIAN THRONE. The Archduke Franz Ferdinaud, the former heir to the throne and nephew of the Emperor, at the Hofburg at Vienna yesterday, in the presence of the Emperor, archdukes, ministers and state disnitaries, took a formal oath that he and his future wife, the Princess Chotek, will both regard their marriage as mor ganatic. Consequently, his wife will never assume the position of empress, and the children by their marriage will never claim the right of succession.

The cath was administered with impressive ceremony. Count Goluchow-ski, the minister of foreign affairs, read the documents. The Archduke then advanced to a crucifix on the table and placed his fingers on the Testament, which was held by the cardinal arch-bishop. Altertaking the oath the Archduke signed the documents. The marriage will occur Sunday.

Archduke Franz Ferdinand was born December 18, 1863. His full name is Franz Ferdinand Charles Louis Joseph Marie. His principal title is Archduke of Austria-E-te. He is the eldest son of the late Arcaduke Karl Ludwig of Austria, eldest brother of Emperor Francis Joseph. He became heir pre-sumptive to the Austrian throne upon the tragic death of his cousin, the Crown Prince Rudolph. Soon after his father died, and he thus became heir apparent. His attachment to the Countess Sophia Cnotek, formerly a lady-in-waiting to the Dutchess Frederick, is of no recent date. He first met her nine years ago, and since then every effort within the royal power has been made to break off the attachment. Many marriages were partially arranged for him with women of royal rank, but he refused to enter them,

The natural successor to the Archduke as heir-apparent would be his brother, the Archduke Otto. The latter's succession, however, has been fenses against decency and society. These led to his banishment from the Austrian court. Archduke Otto is the most unpopular man in Austria. In 1886, when a very young men, he married the Princess Marie Josephine of Saxony. DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP? A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to deheals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient.
